

15th Annual PSSI Summer School
In Cooperation with NATO's Public Diplomacy Division and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Czech Republic

“NATO in the Age of Hybrid Warfare”

June 30 – July 5, 2019
Orlík, Czech Republic

The summer school offers a high-profile study course for students of graduate programs in political science, international relations and other relevant fields from NATO's member and partner countries about future challenges for NATO and the most pressing issues in current security affairs. The five-day course will include lectures, presentations, as well as discussions and a week-long crisis simulation led by experts on NATO and security studies – both scholars and practitioners.

Agenda includes topics such as:

- NATO in a New Strategic Environment
- NATO's 70th Anniversary
- Hybrid Threats
- Cyber Security
- Space Security
- NATO and EU
- NATO's Future Challenges and Opportunities
- Economic and Financial Aspects of National Security
- Week-long crisis simulation based on topics discussed during lectures

Among invited lecturers are:

- Gen. Petr Pavel, former Chairman of the Military Committee, NATO
- Jan Havránek, Policy Advisor, Policy Planning Unit of the Office of the NATO Secretary General
- Pasi Eronen, Lead Researcher, Russia Project, Foundation for Defense of Democracies, USA
- Elisabeth Braw, Associate Fellow, RUSI, UK
- Julie Smith, former Deputy National Security Advisor to the Vice President of the United States.
- Jana Robinson, Space Security Program Director, PSSI
- Lilly Mueller, Cyber Security Researcher, NUPI

Eligibility:

Students currently enrolled in Master's degree programs in Political Science, International Relations and Economics and other relevant fields as well as young professionals from NATO's member and partner countries.

Application:

Please fill the application form at <https://www.formpl.us/form/279516002> and upload there your CV and an essay (max 3600 characters) on the following topic:

“In your opinion, what was the most important news about NATO over the last couple of months, and why?”

The deadline for sending applications is May 5th, 2019 (at midnight CET).

Costs:

Registration fee amounts to 6500,- CZK / 260 EUR. Accommodation, meals and local transport Prague-Orlík-Prague will be fully covered by the organizers.

PSSI can offer to a limited number of participants a 25 % or 50 % scholarship intended for students from low income families.

Selected participants are responsible for securing their own travel visa, and PSSI can supply a letter of support to selected applicants if needed. Please contact the local Czech Embassy immediately to learn of the visa application interview availability.

For further information please contact Mr. Jan Faltys at faltys@pssi.cz.

In connection with the application process to our Summer School 2019 we hereby inform you that we will be processing your personal data that you provided to us and that we obtained when providing services to you. Information regarding the processing of your personal data can be found here.